Come Out for the Great American Boycott II

No shopping, no work, no school, no economic activity

On May 1st thousands of immigrants and their supporters will come out to fight for immigrant rights just like last year. In 2006, our movement stopped the Sensenbrenner Bill. We must go back to the streets to end the raids and deportations and to fight for legalization! We have a chance to win fair and pro-immigrant immigration reform but only if we go back to the streets!

The call for the Great American Boycott II was agreed upon at a national conference in Los Angeles on February 3 initiated by the March 25 coalition. There the National May Day Movement for Worker and Immigrant Rights was formed and is organizing to build a national movement.
